

The Alaska Association of Students Governments encourages student councils in Alaska to build and maintain strong programs. The High School Student Council of Excellence Award honors schools with councils which meet high standards.

AASG is pleased to announce the Student Councils of Excellence for 2007-08.

They are

Juneau-Douglas High School,

Klawock School,

Manokotak Nunaniq School,

and Mt. Edgecumbe High School

These outstanding were recognized at the Spring Conference in Craig, Alaska in April and received a plaque for their school!

All Student Council of Excellence schools will be inscribed on the AASG STUDENT COUNCIL OF EXCELLENCE PLAQUE, a fantastic honor for these student councils!
