

Kudos to AASG Leaders
Who are Moving Mountains!!!

High Fives to Grant Hicks, who got $20,000+ in donations for computers and supplies replacing those lost in the Susitna High School fire. Thanks to the Anchorage Daily News for recognizing Grant's work in Sunday, August 19 edition.

High Fives to Megan Waggoner for her work on the Alaska Youth for Environmental Action's (AYEA) and her championing the 3-2-1 Energy Campaign. She was recognized nationally for her work.

High Fives to Chris Van Wyhe for his executive production of the Kennicott history DVD as part of the Kenny Lake Cadre. You can get the award-winning DVD from Kenny Lake School.

High Fives to Matt Cook for earning certification as a trainer in the Raising Student Voice and Participation Program in Washington, D.C. in April. Now he is following through with his commitment to train Alaska's schools in the process with the October 11 pre-conference session at east High School.

You can get a student recognized here by sending the info to Carol Waters at ma2tna@acsalaska.net