

AASGA Strategic Planning

Notes from October 6-7, 2002 meeting

Present: Terri Stavig, AASGA President, Cordova; Todd Heuston, Region 4 Advisor, Bartlett; Leha Uehling, NASC Coordinator, Chugiak; Margaret Lovejoy, experience Houston advisor not currently on the Steering Committee; Patsy Sloat, Region 2 Advisor, Nenana; Kate Stewart, Spring Conference Registrar, Kodiak; Arlie Swett, State Director, Healy; Peggy Robinson, State Administrator, Anchorage; Gary Matthews, ASAA Executive Director, Anchorage.

Facilitator: Teresa Johnson, past AASG Director, past ASAA Board member, currently Certified Personnel Director for Anchorage School District and UAA Educational Leadership adjunct professor.

Through a lengthy process, we identified the seven (7) topics or areas of major concern for the Strategic Planning group to work on. These are, in no order of priority:

1. Advisor Training
2. Define Roles of State Director and State Administrator
3. Financial Stability
4. Leadership Standards
5. Focus of Conferences
6. Restructure/Revise Constitution
7. Public Relations

Divided into two groups, one worked on Advisor Training and the other on Defining Roles.

Activities or Topics for Subsequent Gatherings:

Fall Conference – present to all advisors:

- Build awareness of effort – Terri Stavig
- Distribute/collect surveys on training and other topics – Kate Stewart
- Share draft of leadership standards – Arlie Swett

Committee meeting before the Winter Business Meeting – January 18 – 8:00 begin

- Draft of handbook for advisors – Arlie Swett
(note: Peggy Robinson is doing the majority of Hosting a Conference Notebook)
- Plan advisor training for spring conference – group
- Draft changes to AASGA and AASG Constitution as it relates to advisors/adults - group
- Review leadership standards – Arlie

Spring Conference

- Provide advisor training
- Bring forward to advisors changes in AASGA Constitution – approve then and/or in fall